

112 Study Questions

1. Apply the four elements that shape crowd behavior to a typical crowd problem at your venue. Discuss how these elements can be manipulated or modified to help ease the situation.
2. How can the key principles of crowd management and risk management be integrated and applied to create a safer environment for patrons.
3. Explain the role that alcohol management plays in crowd management. How can enforcing alcohol management policies help mitigate crowd situations in your venue?
4. Consider the roles of varied venue staff and contractors and their associated responsibilities in a specific type of public assembly venue as it relates to planning for crowd safety.
5. Identify at least 5 factors that affect crowd dynamics.
6. What are some considerations around areas such as signage, food and beverage and traffic management for Crowd Management planning?
7. What are some core elements that should be included in an effective Crowd Management Plan. What other plans should be integrated into a robust Crowd Management Plan?